

Visualization for high throughput screening data

Oleg Sklyar

April 14, 2009

The `splots` package provides the `plotScreen` function for the visualization of for high-throughput assays in microtitre plate or chamber slide format.

Oleg intends to put here a short code example with example data to produce a plot.